To the Class of 2009:

As senior year comes to a close, we look back on the past four years filled with cherished memories. The unforgettable friendships, the endless summers, and the nights we tore it up. Now, it's our chance to shine as we take our first steps into the real world. Although it may not seem like it now, we will remember these days at South Windsor High School as some of the best days of our lives. We were the class that brought the life back to this school. We left our mark on SWHS and we will never be forgotten. Whether we realize it or not, we have all grown together over these past four years. As we leave South Windsor and go on into the future, whatever path that may be, remember the school that shaped us to who we've become, and always continue

Teacher Dedication

Ms. Henchey

Andrea Henchey was born in Hartford, CT on January 11, 1979. Growing up Ms. Henchey was a self-proclaimed tomboy. She loved playing soccer, riding her family's horse Tango, and climbing trees. She was most happy when she was dirty and exhausted. She attended Windsor High School and graduated in 1997. She was really involved with S.A.V.E. (Students Against Violations of the Environment) and other volunteer work. She also played lacrosse, though she admits she wasn't very good.

Ms. Henchey attended St. Michael's College in Colchester, VT. majored in English and minored in Art. She then studied abroad in Nepal with the School for International Training. She earned an Master of Arts in Teaching from Smith College. Ms. Henchey is now in her second year of the Rainier Writing Workshop, a Master of Fine Arts program at Pacific Lutheran University. The MFA is in Creative Writing, with a poetry focus. Next year, she is taking a leave of absence from teaching at SWHS so she can complete her MFA in Creative Writing. She says, "It didn't seem right to tell students they should follow their dreams and not pursue my own! While I'll miss everyone at the school, I'm thrilled I'll have the time to really focus on my poetry."

Although Ms. Henchey will be greatly missed next year, it is clear to see the impact she has had on her students. Her kind-hearted and fun loving personality has made students feel comfortable in her class. "I absolutely love my students. I have felt so lucky to be surrounded by such inspired and inspiring young men and women. Everyone else is great too. It's a pretty darn friendly place. I've always felt supported."

Senior Memories

Malleri Acevedo

These four years have definitely been a whirlwind of ups and downs. Katie thanks for putting up with me, despite the fact that we wanted to kill each other half the time. I have no idea what I am going to do without our "study parties" and pointless get togethers everyday. Mom, Dad, and Dan, our house can be pretty confining but I love every moment of it, I could not have gotten where I am without all of you. Lax girls, I won't forget our drives through town or the dance parties that took place in the convertible before, after, and even during games! Finally to the one teacher who has gotten me through it all, you know who you are and thank you for finding a way to fix the tears or boost my lack of confidence with your words of "inspiration". "Every new beginning comes from some other beginnings end," good luck class of '09, we did it!

Pricilla Appiagyei

Lastly, thanks to God that I made it! and best wishes to everyone.

Guleid Awale

"I am South Windsor's Somali sensation."

My time in South Windsor High School has been memorable to say the least. I've experienced pep rallies, countless spirit weeks, a new wellness policy, (unfortunately) and so much more. Whether you realize it or not, each person I've met has left a lasting impression and experience that I'll cherish for a long time. So as my time in SWHS winds down, I'll be savoring every last moment. Because just like any other good thing, it must eventually come to an end.

Michelle Baj

"Feeling lucky today got the sunshine, could you tell me what more do I need and tomorrow's just a mystery, oh yeah but that's ok" – Taylor Swift

Elizabeth Barry

"I dig my toes into the sand, the ocean looks like a thousand diamonds strewn across a blue blanket ... and in this moment I am happy."

As my final year of high school comes to a close I can't help but think about all the things that have happened to me these past four years. From adventures, to creepers, to singing and dancing. To prom, to breakups, to shakeups. I've grown up a lot over these past few years and all of my close friends have helped me to do this. From the ones I've known for years to the ones I've known for a short time I don't know what I would do without you. I have alot of great memories with you all including... word pee, boys busses, I want to touch you like this, birthdays, movie nights, long talks, near death experiences, sporting events, ice skating, CVS runs, gumdrops, ice cream, airsoft, indoor track, skiing and so much more. Thanks to my family for supporting me. I love you guys so much. Congrats class of 2009, we did it!

Katherine Benettieri

"I don't remember how we happened to meet each other. I don't remember who got along with whom first. All I can remember is all of us together...always."

To my girls: whether we were doing nothing or everything we always had fun and made sure to make a scene wherever we happen to end up. Over these past four years I learned a lot about myself, about others, about who I want to be and more importantly who I don't want to be. It hasn't been easy but it was worth all the laughter and tears. To my family: Mom and Dad thanks for putting up with me, I love you and couldn't have done it without you. Gramma, you are my hero and I could only hope to be like you one day. SADD, SWCTS lifeguards, girls Tennis, Pennell crew and ybk09 Thank you for everything and to everyone else who made my high school experience better a little better, thank you. Good luck to the Class of 2009...we made it!

"Act like a queen. A queen is not afraid of failure. Failure is just another step towards greatness." -Oprah

It's strange to think that, after four years of trying to find our way, high school is finally coming to an end. Best friends have become more like siblings and that's what makes goodbyes so hard, and the good times so memorable. Laura, remember never to let anyone get you down. You are an amazing person and someone someday will recognize that. Glenn, please stay the same, I will miss you too much if you changed from your blunt, "uglennly" lifestyle. Amanda- fruit, lucky monkeys, My Italian leprechaun, G-man, all our movie nights, our baking to get over guys, #2, my best friend for 6 years. Peter Braddock

"Overall a great night"

From the minute I walked through the door at South Windsor High School, it was a welcomed change. I never thought that I could experience so many great things and meet so many new people over the course of four years. However, through the help of teachers, guidance counselors, coaches, best friends (you know who you are) girlfriends and teammates, these were easily the best four years of my life. I would like to give a special thanks to all of my friends on the football team including coach Bullock, McClay, Sharon and of course coach Q. for making me who I am today and teaching me the value of hard work and determination. And of course I have to mention Molly (and not just because she told me to) so there you go.

Michelle Brault

"And in the end, the love we take will be equal to the love we make."-The Beatles

I think it's safe to say that each of us have taken so much from our high school experience. Over the past four years I've learned so much about myself, and I couldn't have done that without the people that have seen me through it. Mommy, thank you for never giving up on me. Jen, you're my best friend. Dad, Pete, and G- thanks for always being there for me. I love you all. Alyssa, I couldn't live without you woman. You've taught me so much and you've always been there for me. I've had more laughs with you than anyone else. THAT'S a maaaaaailbox! Spaghetti legs. I'll be seein ya no doubt about it. Jon, thanks for putting up with me. To DA FIVE, Em-you always know how to make me laugh, Jess, Shella. You guys are pretty weird but I kinda like you anyways. To all my other girls and boys, you know who you are! Each one of you has made an impact on my life and I'll never forget it. Live ya life, keep it real. I'm ouuuuuuut!

Maddie Bulkley

"You're an Individual not a Statistic"-Marvin's Room

I am thankful for all I have learned in these past four years at SWHS. There never seems to be enough time to fit in all of our high school youth. Yet I have treasured all the moments good and bad, as they occur. To my friends: you are the constant sunshine of my lives and are always there to brighten my spirits when things get rough. I will never forget each one of your kind words and unique characteristics that combined make all of you my second family. To Mom, Bev, Dad and Kevin, I give my unconditional love and thanks for all the wise lessons you have instilled in me. Dad, I love you. The ardency you had for life continues to inspire me and to live up to our Bulkley name. I leave SWHS a stronger, more educated and indebted young-woman eager for life after graduation. To everyone who helped me to be where I am today, I raise my glass to you!

Ashley Buonanducci

"Well-behaved women rarely make history"

Senior year has flown by so quickly. I can't believe that next year is college. These have been the best times of my life. The people who have always been there for me are my family. I can count on them. When I go off to school I am going to miss them so much. I will miss my mom's goodnight saying and my dad's goofy stand, but most of all I will miss my sisters. Mitzy, you have always been there. We fight like crazy but I am going to miss you and our late night sleepovers in my room. Have fun as a senior next year! Katelyn, with the cameras and our obsession of Disney I don't know what I will do without you. A. Deming; I can always turn to you if I have something on my mind. 10 years and counting baby! Carla and Kaley you know me inside and out plus you never let me down. Last but not least my gymnastics team thank you for always being there. Enjoy yourselves next year without pooh bear and Tigger.

Magda Burek

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."

The friendships I made and the ties I build will never be forgotten. This might be the end but yet a new beginning. So where do I start? Trips to Maine and the beach, bonfires and dinners, girls' night out and long night of fun and excitement. Meeting the best people that I could ever be friends with. We all stuck together through the good and the not so good times. Screaming at the football games will never be forgotten as well as the ice cold hockey games we've been to. I want to say thanks to all of my friends, it's been a lot of fun, and I especially want to say thanks to Mel. I love you so much and you are just like a sister to me. Great times talking polish and going to Polanka and Zabawa, and yeah let's not forget the food that grace always made for you. I also want to thank my parents for supporting me in everything I did. I want to thank my teachers and especially Ms. Henchey, you are one of the best teachers that a student could ask for. I truly believe that this is not the end; it's just a new beginning for all of us.

Erin Burke

The past four years have ended fast, can you believe it? We made it to the end where we go our separate ways. High School isn't only about what you learn it's about the memories you have made with the ones you won't forget. We have laughed until we cried and loved every moment but there is no way I can sum them up but here is just a little bit. Parties, NYC, late nights, early mornings, best friends, prom, road trips and more. Don't let anyone or anything stop you from your dreams and reach for the stars. To the class of 2009 I don't know about all of you but I have had the time of my life Mom, Dad and Courtney what would I have done without you guys? Even though you got on my nerves you guys stuck by me to lift me up to follow my dreams thank you and I love you guys. And to my friends that I kept during the years thank you for being there for me and thanks for the memories. "Things are changing, we're growing apart. It's not goodbye but a change in heart. The road we've traveled was just a start, I'm sure we'll meet again". The class of 2009!

Wow my four years at South Windsor High School has had its ups and downs, and fun times. Everyone has had their share of drama, including me. We realized that we are two young and life is too short to lose your friends that have been there for you, helping you and guiding you. Linda Forrester has always had my back since the sixth grade, but we departed in the 7th and 8th grade, why? We don't know. All we know is that we are like sisters, cousins, and best friends. She is one of those friends who would put me in check if I didn't do my homework, or wasn't doing my best in class. YouTube videos all day but we don't care what people say! We've had some fun times together like dancing in chorus, being obnoxious, being the first to dance at prom, and singing while walking in Macys. "Together forever and never to part". I'm going to miss you the most I love you girl. I must say graduation is going to be happy and fun. I'm really going to miss my Mom, because she's my Mom but also my best friend, my everything. I love you Mom! Love Tiia Carter

We're done! It's amazing how four years of your life goes by so fast. Hanging with my b-ball girls, Kelsey Z and Abby hold it down next year. The lacrosse girls: love you all! Thanks to my family, you're the best family anyone could ever ask for. Mom and Dad, I can't thank you enough for everything you've done for me. Tess you're always there for me. Ash, my twin for life <3 couldn't have done anything I've done these past four years without you. All my friends, awesome times together that I'll never forget, going hard all day every day. You're all the best and I love you very much. Congratulations class of 2009! Good Luck!

I can't believe four years has gone by so fast. I had many amazing and crazy times with my friends. For me the best times I had were sports. My second families, girls Basketball and Lacrosse team you have shown and taught me so many new things. Sports at South Windsor High have made me who I am today. There is one person that helped me and stood by me, through ups and downs, Amber Casiano, my twin sister. You have always been there and I wouldn't have gotten through high school without you. Mom, Dad, Tessa, You have always been there for me. You have supported and encouraged me. You have always supported my opinions and ideas. I love you all. I will always keep the memories that high school brought, even the bad ones. I feel so old graduating high school, yet so young just starting college. It's hard to think about all of us going in different directions. YBK '09. I come out of High School with no regrets. Class of 2009, Congrats!

Wow four years go by fast. It feels like just yesterday we were freshman walking around the halls scared as can be. Now we "rule the school." I just wanted to thank my amazing friends for making high school a time in my life I will never forget. These four years were nothing like I expected we did much more like decorating the mini van for concerts, trips to ron-a-roll, and decorating countless shirts. So now that these four years are over, its time for us to start a new chapter in our lives...college! I would like to wish everyone luck on their new adventure as we step out of the safe zone of the high school, and enter the real world, it's going to be scary but I believe that we are all strong enough to make it! So congratulations class of 2009! WE DID IT!

Thanks to all the people that made my four years of high school unforgettable. Thanks to my Mom for encouraging me to do my best, I love you! To the crew: I couldn't have done it without you girls. The memories we share are priceless, from UConn football games, to concerts at the Dodge, No Names, hockey boys and apartment 112! Chelsea: I don't know anyone who can make me laugh harder. Maybe it's because I read the home directions on the way there or because you forgot to put your car in park. You're always good at letting me know when the tables hot and when I need to get out quick. A word of advice, stay away from the 6B's, avoid a little wiggle and no scarf shopping! Julia: Thank god you're my neighbor and a best friend. Let me just say, you're a crazy girl and I love it! McKenzie: I'm so happy that I met you; you're truly a great friend. We share so many memories, good times with you on the 4th of July!

Four years went so fast. I leave SWHS this year with so many fond memories and friendships. Some of my favorite moments came from Spectrum, my second family. Our competitions and trips have been amazing. Kelsey, Chris, Stephen and Nick- without you guys spectrum and my senior year would not have been as enjoyable. Our adventures are some of the best I've had. Carolyn and Olivia, my sophomore girls- You're great, and I love you both so much. Adrienne, Hillary, and Molly- you've been such good friends to me, and I have only love and adoration for you. Cameron you are my best friend. Buffalo chicken, cliff jumping and making CDs- thank you for everything. Mark, Katie, and Sam- you have given me four years of friendship and unconditional love that I am eternally grateful for. Every memory- chats on the porch, giraffes, and even the British broadcasting company- I will cherish forever. To everyone else, thanks for giving me some of the best times of my life thus far. Congrats class of 2009!

There are so many things I would like to say about my experience at South Windsor High, it would take a life time to list them all. To my friends who've helped me along this crazy roller coaster, thank you, I truly love you. To Caitlin, you are one of my best friends – Ireland, Bumble, Friday night adventures, Shia LaBeouf in a toga, 2am conversations. Stacy, Chelsea and Michelle - always are my dance buddies! Alex, you're practically family – beach, being American, I love Pink! Ruby Tuesdays. Amanda, I love how I've known you forever and we're still friends, always remember boys are stupid! Steph, good times I'll never forget – Cascada songs, Relay for Life, long walks. Allison, I love you so much, it's never a dull moment with you – WHA WHA WE WHA!! All of you have been a blessing to me. As a person I was pretty much lost. But in the past four years I started to believe in myself and my potential. Somewhere along the way that lost little girl finally grew up. So congrats class of 2009, in the words of the Jonas Brothers, "Live like you're at the bottom, even if you're at the top."

What can I say about my four years here? Nothing more, than I can't believe they're over. There's no doubt in my mind that I'm ready to leave this school forever, but I know that I will always have a piece of my heart in the school somewhere. Whether it's in my locker or the auditorium, it will be hidden somewhere. Being here for four years has taught me a lot about life and more importantly about myself. I only wish that I could replay all of my memories. Many of them have left permanent footprints in my heart. My friends and family are the ones who have influenced me the most during these four years. I love all of them with all of my heart, and I can definitely say that these four years wouldn't have been the same without them. I learned a lot over the four years that I've been locked up in this school. You never realize how much you learn in high school, not just the stuff from your teachers, but the life lessons you learn from yourself.

Senior year came and went so fast. I've met so many great people along the way that have helped to make my high school years unforgettable, and I can't thank them enough. Melanie, you're always there for me and there's never a dull moment when we're together. Jill, I don't know how you put up with my craziness but I'm really glad you do - Block Island, Long Island... pretty much every island. Joe, we've been through a lot and have shared some great memories. Ashley, even though I missed you in school senior year, you still helped to make my high school years memorable. "We laughed until we had to cry, and we loved right down to our last goodbye" I wish everyone the best in the years to come. Congratulations Class of '09!

These past four years have been indescribable. I'm not sure where to start. I want to thank my best friend, aka "biffer" for always being there for me and making these past four years amazing. I'll never forget pranking everyone in the halls saying, "You dropped something," and running through the halls laughing. It's something that will never get old to me. We always found something new to laugh about. I also want to thank my parents for helping me come this far. I couldn't have done it with you, Mom and Dad. Nicole, I couldn't ask for a better sister. You're the one person I can always come to when I have a problem. We've become incredibly close and I'm so happy for that. Last but not least, Mrs. Carlson thank you for your support and encouragement. You are a great teacher and I will never forget you. I'm going to miss every little bit of high school even though I never liked the getting up in the morning part. I'm ready to start a new journey in life but will always treasure my high school memories.

These past four years of high school have been quite a trip. I will never forget all the close friends I've made and the experiences we have been through together. To my parents, thanks for putting up with me, you have always been there and are always supportive, I love you. To Mike, good luck in school, I hope your experiences are as good as mine were. Matt, we always go at it, whether we are in practice, or at home, but we have had some hilarious times together, I'm lucky to have a brother and a friend as good as you. To all my boys, the times have been great; I couldn't have had better friends. Playin' ball at Rye Street for countless hours, partying on the weekends, or just sitting in a parking lot with a couple of beach chairs. Bryan, we've been boys since second grade, we've been through a lot together, Birch, Vinny, JB, Adam, JJ, Jerell, and Keavany I'll never forget the times we've had together.

Michelle Dederer

You make the bad times good and the good times unforgettable. Jessica: from the kicking bloody nose to towing you out in Old Lyme with X-tie. You'll never drop how I said "you don't?!" We walked in best friends, I'm glad we're leaving that way. I love you forever. Em: we've grown so much closer these past two years. Rita's! Cape Cod is always great; especially the weather. Simple tress-passing tickets and taking loaves is no biggie. Brault: we go way back. Cardinals- we're the reason for our nicknames that are used to this day. You are by far the funniest girl I've ever met. Lyss: you're always up for anything with me, water skiing felt great, ya know? In the end we may not all be going in the same direction, but we'll never forget where we came from. As for Mom, Dad, Alyssa and Mike- thanks for putting up with me, seriously. I love you guys. Rest in Peace Ab. Class of '09 much love.

My high school years are some that I will NEVER forget. There are so many friends, teachers, administrators and family members that I really want to thank but I cannot name everyone. To start, my family has always been my biggest supporters and I want to thank every last one of them, especially my sister and parents...Thank you! This part is hard, TO ALL MY FRIENDS, it won't be the same not seeing you guys every day. I am really going to miss everyone! And to Colton, "Blue you're my boy!" Whether we were jumping off cliffs or mackin it with babes, we never had a dull moment and I am sure we will have many more awesome memories! To my teachers, I couldn't have done it without any of you and I want to thank ALL of you so much! Orkin Man, Violette, and Czapla...I love you guys! Now my boys on the X-country team, Broady, Matty V, Parker, etc, make me proud! Now, here is a quote for the x-country team, "Some people don't have the guts for distance racing. We are at the final stage of our adolescence. All the guidance we have received in life has been for this moment. Now, we forge our own existence, free from the plague of shackles that hindered us before. It is time to become our own people. Do what you wish, as long as you improve yourself. Ambition has never been more relevant – shatter the empyrean. Cast away your apathy, you shouldn't have a use for it. Always remember, you will reap what you sow. ## Linda Forrester

These past four years have gone by so fast, they just flew by me. I have had a lot of friendships fail and a lot of new and old ones bloom. Senior year was the year when I realized who was actually there for me and who was just acting as if they cared. Tiia Carter even though we had a point in time where we stopped talking for a cool minute I'm glad that we worked our friendship out. You have supported me with everything I've done and never doubted me. YouTube...that's our thing, the Tiia- Linda show, that's something I don't think I'll ever forget! We've had so many fun times and we're never going to end this! "Together forever and never to part". Amber Casiano, you've been my best friend for a million years now. Sneaking out, prank calls and even wasting hours sitting in the Stop & Shop's parking lot, were the best moments. You tried to help with my love life, but you were never too good at that one! No matter what I always got your back, no doubt about it. I love you both forever and always... "Thank you for being a friend." HA HA. Love Linda.

"Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it."-Ferris Bueller

Where did four years of high school go? I don't think it's accurate to say that high school would be the best four years of my life but definitely the quickest. Each moment good or bad became a memory to make up each day, week, month, and year. Moments with my friends became memories to stack on top of the others. There were always the people I met and the people I knew, but no one can top the people that I could count on at anytime, those are the friends that I will never be able to let go. I am one who can say I have seen myself grow and learn from each experience. My family and friends are the ones who encouraged me to always put one foot in front of the other and become who I knew I could. I love them, more than words could describe. Change doesn't always come easy but I am ready to begin my life after high school. I am ready to learn by going out and experiencing life, letting curiosity lead me.

Sara Fulton

It seems these past four years were over before they even started. Mom and Dad-it's been rough, but it's made me that much stronger. I want to thank you for everything and for always supporting me. I love you with all of my hearts and Erin-my better halves. Stop and Shop runs and Old Navy. Erbear-you're the sister I never had. Bombers tournaments, Swedish Fish, guardrails. CT Bombers-my second family; "Good things always happen on a full count" "When I grow up.."18U; crazy. I love you guys. Keri-Girl! CapeCod, Prom, Ritas, and baseball games. Ariella-you are my sunshine; Starbucks, Maroon5, beach days. You've helped me through so much, and I'd be lost without you love bug. Colt-baby I love you; you always brighten my day and make me smile. SPF-it's always better when we're together. Brian-thank you for always being there for me and for all of your hugs. Steve, Shan, &Derek-keep up the list; grandmaster. Jared-you never let me fall and are the best brother anyone could ask for, I love you. Good luck '09, it's been real.

The number 728, representing the number of school days in four years, has never seemed so small. Freshman orientation seems like just a few weeks ago. Memories are the only things that keep me from thinking I time-traveled through the past four years. Dungannon, Ocean City, Ivoryton, Silver Lake, and Cape Cod were all phenomenal. I hope everyone involved lets Senior Pilgrimage Fellowship become as much a part of their life as I did mine. Kelsey and Stephy, congrats on the successful adoption. You changed my life. Chris, you and I have had the greatest bromance anyone could ever ask for. Thank you for everything. Old school soccer, the Cape, my basement, your basement, the water testing room/Bat Cave, Vermont (and on the way), transition area... all of this has indefinitely secured you in my Speed Dial #9 spot. Papa Muntz once said, "Bull Mountain, don't go changing!" And that's how it'll be, bro. I would especially like to thank my mom and sister for always being there. You mean the world to me. Thank you. I love you all.

Amanda Gallugi

Wow, who would have thought senior year would come and end so quickly? It all started freshman year, our science class consisted of Bill Nye movies and Carlson's attempt to be him. Lisa, remember unscrewing Carlson's wooden chair so that when he sat he collapsed to the ground! Becca! We love SWAFF, FAD, SADD, and our no-smoking commercials that we'll probably never finish. Yay ribbons!! Keri, we've been best friends since you moved here on my birthday. I don't see our friendship ever ending. D, you're going to do great things. I've had such a great time being with you this year. You're going to do great at Trinity. However, my cardinal will always beat your Bantam. SW lacrosse girls, make sure you don't ever show Glastonbury any mercy. SWFH girls: Don't ever let anyone take our conference title away from us. Learn to enjoy the scenery on Miller Road because chances are you will continue to see it many more times before you graduate! Thanks Mom, Dad, Elizabeth and Emily. I love you all and thanks for your support.

Therese Garrich

These four years have been a rollercoaster of ups and downs, but when all is said and done I came out with no regrets. I have lost and gained friendships with people I will never forget. To the ones that have stuck it out- I love you, and I will cherish the memories you've given me. Mom, you're the only one I knew I could always count on, and I love how close we've become. Thanks for being my backbone. Alli, Dad, Michelle, I love you, you're amazing. And finally, I would like to thank Brett, for always being that shoulder to lean on. I'll never forget you.

South Windsor High School. So many words and memories come to mind when I say those words, from the best time of my life to the hardest and most stressful experience of my life. From my freshman year to my senior year I have grown, accomplished things I never thought I would and create friendships that mean the world to me. Michelle sometimes I feel like you are the only one that understands me and we have been through almost everything together from our crazy summers in Maine to our lame nights sitting in your basement. You have always been there for me which means the world to me. Emily we have had so many fun times like myrtle and going out to lunch religiously at some points. High school without you would not be the same. Jess love hood times, Deeds and girls always love ya and boys you know who you are. Mom and Dad you have always supported me and believed in me. Mrs. Carlson you were the most wonderful teacher I have ever had you helped me in more than one I will always remember you and I thank you so much. Bball girls. YBK '09

"Be who you are and say what you feel because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind." - Dr. Seuss

Four years came and went so fast. I can't believe that we did it! I want to thank all of my friends that made the Sdubb more amusing than it really is. Momo- I love our witty banter; Suburban Sprawl will make it big one day so keep our notes. Gar- I'll always remember the magic of Disney and driving around with nowhere to go. Sarah- I love our movie night; you made me eat sushi and I owe you guacamole. Sara- fireballs and playing on the giant piano; viva Mongolia. Helen- Driving to the homeland and our fireside chats; don't forget that Christmas with the Carpenters is always in season! Lenny- you are my other half, partner in crime, and basically another sister; Home goods, coffee, Gilmore Girls, EVERYTHING, and the list goes on. Most of all I want to thank the Gerrity Bunch- Mom, Dad, Johnny, Colin, Bridget, Connor and Kayleigh- you have always put up with me no matter how loud I am and I love you all so much!

"The highest compliment that you can pay me is to say that I work hard every day, that I never dog it" Wayne Gretzky

My four years are coming to a end at SWHS and looking back at these last four years I have had some great times screwing around with all my friends Kevin M, Todd D, Chris C, Sieve, Sean H, Eddie D, Brian S, and that's just a few. Some memories are Construction class singing, going out on Halloween causing mischief, hanging out in study halls talking about stupid stuff, hitting up Butternut, Super bowl parties at my house and finding buffalo sauce rubbed in to the rug and Kevin smiling, Saratoga weekends at hotels with my teammates, and just relaxing with my boys on my free time. I enjoyed my four years and will have a lot to remember as I think back on my time at SWHS. I'm looking forward to my upcoming college years but hope I never lose touch with all my great friends I made throughout my years in South Windsor.

Bailey Glover

"You only live once, but when you live like us, once is enough."

Glovesman, Forget the movies, you're better than Superman. You're forever in my heart. Never mind, you are my heart. Lele, you taught me that you don't have to be blood to be family. If you get to heaven before I do, wait outside the gates for me or ask to bring a friend. Jay-D, you've made me stronger. If I jump off a cliff, I know you're at the bottom to save me. Greider, you're one of a kind girl, crazy times with you. Cleaners Babes & Christi, thanks for tolerating my moods. You guys always make me feel better by 7 o'clock. Mama & Papa Glove, thanks for having faith that I can touch the stars. Sly, Nostin, Doogs & Thatcher, you have all unknowingly impacted me. Can't thank you guys enough. To everyone else, appreciate the good times, but don't take the worst for granted because you only get so many second chances.

These past four years have flown by more quickly than I had imagined. Looking back to freshman year it's incredible how much I have changed; thanks to so many people. Bonnie—you have been my rock since you moved here in 5th grade. To my dancers—for thirteen years of my life I've been with you in that studio; you are all amazingly talented and I will miss our classes more than you know. To the cast of "Millie"—we made so many memories that I will never forget; and I can't wait to be sitting front-row center next year to see how much more you'll have grown. Christine, you have no idea what our friendship means to me. You are the sister I never had; my best friend in the world. Wherever we end up next year, we'll keep making memories as if we never left. Mom, Dad, and Paul—thank you for everything. I love you all so much; I wouldn't be where I am today if it weren't for you. Best of luck to everyone!

John Grohs

"Neither a wise man, nor a brave man lies down on the tracks of history to wait for the train of the future to run over him." - Dwight D. Eisenhower

We've had some good times over the past four years. Indoor track, football, beating Rockville three out of four years, winning CCC East, track hangouts at Friendly's, pick up football games, Jay Cee Courant baseball, ice skating, sledding at Henry Park, Rhode Island shore and then spending my entire summer grounded, working at TUSC, trying to figure out economics, sitting in café study, laughing at my injury proneness, National Honors Society, Future Business Leaders of America, and so much more. I want to thank all my friends and family for their love and support, especially my mother and father, without them I wouldn't be where I am today. I am going to miss everyone from SWHS and wish them luck with their life after.

Erin Hallarin

Wow, seniors at last- where to even begin? There were movie nights, driving adventures, endless Stop and Shop trips, crazy chemistry classes, band and the Hershey trip, softball, volleyball and our amazing fans (I'll never forget that Rockville game), summers with my Bombers and so much more. To my friends, who I'd be lost without, my Bombers, who are my second family, my parents and Mike and Danny- thanks for everything, you're the ones who make it all worth it.

"Life's not about waiting for the storm to pass; it's about learning to dance in the rain."

These four years have taught me many lessons, ones that will never be applicable beyond the walls of SWHS, and ones that have shaped me into the person I will be when I walk beyond them. Above all else, I have learned the value of friendship and being surrounded by truly amazing people. Girls, keep partying hard, lovin' life where ever it may take you, and remember to FBG$. Guys, you have kept me sane and laughing when the drama was too much to bare. Mom, Dad, Amy, and Ron- You have given me the strength to face my future and a hard enough head to ignore those who have ever told me I couldn't. Molly and Dest- I love you so much! Samantha- You're my rock and other half. I adore you Sul-be good, stay out of trouble and away from corn dogs ;-)

Colin Heneghan

My life at SWHS has been full of hard work, dedication and fun. I will never forget all the sleepless nights dedicated to homework, cramming for exams, or starting that project that was assigned months ago due the next day. Between running Robotics with Jelly and Sam, being Co-President of FBLA with Chris, Dodge-Ball Club and everything else I was involved in, I will miss it all. Though I was so involved, I still found time for somewhat of a social life. To all of my friends too many to mention in 850 characters, I will miss you. Our bro-nights and crazy adventures have been... interesting. From falling down a waterfall to cliff jumping it's been fun. Samantha Plourde, your kindness and compassion is only compared to your beauty. I don't know how you have put up with me for over a year, but it's been the best year of my life. I can't wait to see where life brings us. As much as I want things to remain the same, who am I to stand against the current? In the words of John Peers, "Never stand between a dog and the hydrant."

Sean Herlihy

I can't believe how fast these four years have gone by. Starting with the hockey boys, I love you guys. It has been great years being with you on the team and I won't forget a waking moment about any of it. To all my friends, Nate, Paige, Erin, Matt, Rob the Sieve, Mike, Todd, thank you guys for these fantastic four years. I couldn't have done any of it without any of you. Nate- All those good times growing up man, I can't believe we're finally going to be separated after all these years. Paige- Keep your head up, cherish your remaining years because it fly's by, and I love you. Matt and Erin- Hopefully we can all keep in touch because I love you guys, and I don't know what I would do without you two. Sieve, Mike and Todd- enjoy yourself guys, let's keep in touch because we will all be going to different colleges but I want to make sure we always remain friends. I would like to especially thank Mom, Dad and Tyler. I love you guys more than anything, and I want to thank you for everything you have done for me. Congratulations class of 2009!

Remember, remember, this is now, and now, and now. Live it, feel it, cling to it. I want to become acutely aware of all I've taken for granted. – Sylvia Plath

What a lens we are under in this yearbook that will last so much longer than a year. This is not only to my friends, my teachers, my parents, but also to my children who will study these glossy pages as I studied those of my mother. So who am I now? I can try to capture it in the next five hundred characters. I am not the little girl in a laundry basket manhandling a kitten, and I am not the lost, backpacked person I was on my first day of high school. I feel strong and confident and honest and loved and loving. I've walked Parisian streets, climbed mountains and laughed myself raw. I even managed to impersonate Borat while representing Kazakhstan in front of hundreds of Model UN delegates. Thanks to those who I love – you know who you are. Come visit me at Smith (we'll eat Thai food.) Evolution is constant, and I plan to live, feel, and cling to every moment of it.

These past four years have completely changed my life and have opened my eyes for what's ahead of me. Meeting new people and friends, trying new and exciting things, and learning so much more then I could possibly imagine. I'll never forget Mrs. Whites 3rd period English class (HOLLA!), so many good times guys! Mr. Fables 3rd period design class, YOU DA MAN FABLE! So many amazing thoughts go racing through my head as I write this all down. Big shout outs to my boy Nasty Nate, Kelly, Gian, BIG SETH, Deanna, Elliott, Gio, the list goes on and on! In the future, free your mind, be positive, and never give up for what you believe in! And in the words of Boy Problems, "Open your mouth and listen to the Most beautiful sights you have ever felt. Breathe it in!" It's been real y'all! Peace, love and om mani padme hum! Koski.

"So don't be afraid to make mistakes, cause most of the time, the greatest rewards come from doing the things that scare you the most. The road is long, but in the end, the journey is the destination." Thank you so much for everyone that helped us get this far. I'm not sure how, but we are seniors. Thank you to my family, for always supporting me. I could never have accomplished everything that I have, without you. MY GIRLS. I love you! I could never even begin to name everything we've been through, but you make me laugh every single day, and I love you for it. My boys, thank you for keeping me sane. I love you. This is crazy, but class of '09, good luck wherever you go! WE MADE IT! Oh yeah... ybk09

Paige and Mia, you will always both be my little sisters. I love you. Mom and Dad I love you more than anything, even when I drag you everywhere with me. Angelina and Briana I love you, you are the best sisters I could have ever asked for! Thank you. Grosso you've made an impact on my life and made me realize doing a split in jeans may not be the smartest idea. You have also made me love hockey and become the Bobcat hockey super fan that I am. Thank you! Al-I have to write you name for the rest of my life how I could ever forget you!

Looking back, I thought that graduation day would never come. But it did, and it all flew by so quickly! I met some of the best people and made the best of friends. From early recorder mornings to late movie nights; these past years have been unforgettable. The top-secret notebook from freshman year, admiring the hot kid from afar and hours spent racking up the phone bill. Sophomore year tornados and pledge. France and prom junior year and this year's Rock Band, Stop & Shop and aimless driving with music blaring. I'll cherish my long days and friendships at VMP; it possibly may be the best way to spend your summers. Thanks everyone for always being there and for the extraordinary memoires.

Rachel Janik

"Everywhere you go, there you are"

After four years I can't believe it's over. This day came too soon; way too soon. I don't think I can describe all of the memories I have of high school in a paragraph and I know I can't tell all of the people that have come into my life how much they really mean to me. From the "Pennellers" to France and back I have enough smiles to last me a life time. I'm done with being a band geek and I'm going to miss all of the band jokes. I'm never going to perform in Disney World again and almost die on Tower of Terror with my best friend Ksmith. I'm never going to get to travel to France again with my class and walk around the streets of Paris getting lost and eating crepes. I know I'm never going to relive these exact moments but I have the pictures and the memories that will last me a life time. Stephen, you are the best part of my life and thank you for always knowing how to make me smile. Kelsey, Alyssa, Christine, Sara, Sarah and Mollz; you girls are my best friends and I can't wait for the road ahead of us, I love you and you know that.

Chris Jelly

"The years teach much which the days never knew."- Ralph Waldo Emerson

I learned a lot in school. Math, science, English, (Spanish?), but the most important things I learned were from all of you. I can honestly say that at the time although it wasn't immediately apparent, every minute of high school has forever changed me. Robot kids, I'd love to spend many more hours stranded in airports with you all, eating at the CNN center, and roaming the GWCC. Theater and Tech kids, the many hours spent with you all these past four years have been both stressful and exciting at the same time. Spectrum, traveling all over the East coast with you all (and taking care of business) has been a blast. To all my other friends who I've met these past few years, thanks for always being there when the above mentioned were tired of spending so much time with me. And to my teachers, and most importantly my family, who have truly shaped me into the person I am today, thank you all.

Emily Johnson

One day here and the next day gone. Unreal. Jess, there just aren't enough words. You are my best friend and my shoulder to cry on. I couldn't have done anything the past four years without you. Getting our licenses and losing them the same days was fun. I love you forever. Alyssa, MB08, Maine, pointless car rides, walking in the gym and out two seconds later was so cool. Deeds, RITA'S. Reflectors and CarPaint. Pkins and Bkins. Bring the snacks. And the bread. Brault, I couldn't imagine life without you in it. You keep me laughing. I love y5u all. Nick, see you at 9:26. Abb and Kels, keep laughing. Mom, Dad and Eric, thanks for all the motivation along the way; I would be half the person I am today without you. Sarah, you are my other half and my best friend. You are my role model and my guidance in life. Thanks for always laughing with me, I owe you the world. I love you to the moon and back. To the class of '09: never have an excuse for smiling.

"Never regret. If it's good, it's wonderful. If it's bad, it's experience." Victoria Holt

I thought that these four years would go by so slow, but I was wrong. I have made so many new friends and learned many new things. I want to thank my family, my Mom, my Dad, Olivia and Emma, for being there for me when I really needed it. You have all pushed me to be the best that I could be and to work hard in school because you had faith in me. I love you all, and if it weren't for you, I wouldn't be the person I am today. To all my other friends, stage crew and showcase especially...thank you for making me open up and become more outgoing. To all my teachers who have been there for me during my entire four years of high school, thank you. I wouldn't have gotten through all of my classes and worked to my full potential without your support.

Matt Keaveny

My four years at South Windsor High School are finally coming to a close, but I know in a few years I will look back at them as the time of my life. Thanks to my family, Mom, Dad, David and Kayla for always being there for me. As for the boys Rob, Kevin, Jeff, Soloway, Joey, Vinny, Rinker, CJ, Birch, Bobby, JJ, Bates, Petkis, Adam, Brick and all the rest, I could have never made it through without you. "Yo Rob, how are my eyes?" Too many jokes I could never forget. "Rinker are you sleeping?" Kevin you are the funniest kid I have ever met. Goddess Bunny, Expelliarmus, the halo 2 days, and so much more. Sly and Danger hold this place down after we leave. EEEEEEE. It was all a dream... Ally, Mariss, Michelle, Kate, Kelly, Jill, Alyssa, Michelle Brault, Emily, I'm gonna miss all the fun times. Way more to come. I love all you guys, and to the rest of the class of '09 I will never forget you.

Caitlin Kelly

High school went by so fast for me. I had the most memorable times here at South Windsor High, and made many new friends along the way. I will never forget the friends I made here, VIP, Liz Santos, Me and Pavi Santos, The Brat Pack, Me, Liz Santos and Jess Lombardo. And I will never forget the time I hung out with ASAP, fun times! I want to thank my teachers for the high school experience. I also want to thank Mrs. Carlson for pushing me to my fullest potential; thanks to her I made honors my junior and senior year. I want to thank the cheerleading team for giving me a fun senior year I really appreciate it. Good luck next year and hope you all decide to do it again. I want to shout out to Bella, all the fun times we had were so funny, BSC! I want to thank my parents for the awesome high schools years, I really appreciate it all. I also want to thank Ben and Jerry, me and Jess's boyfriends, for being there for us through thick and thin. I want to congratulate the class of 2009! And hope everyone strives for their dreams. Thanks for the high school experience.

"Life moves pretty fast. You don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it.- Ferris Bueller's Day Off

There are 365 days in the year. We spent 4 years at South Windsor High School. That's approximately 1460 days in our high school life. So most days are just another day and the events of that day are forgotten. But there are always the moments that'll always stick with you. Going to Disney World, being on stage in a leading role, Mr. South Windsor High School, listening to McDougal at the football games, ghost hunting, prom, my "brothers". I wouldn't be the way I am today without some people. Mr. Martineau, Mr. Stead, Mrs. Wlodarczyk, and Dr. Larochele, you guys have done so much to help me to where I am and I thank you so much! Choral Spectrum, you guys have been my life these last four years and we've shared a lot of memories. I leave with great confidence in you guys and truly believe you'll be great for years to come. Dad, it surprised me how much you actually started liking music after Spectrum, I'm glad you enjoyed everything. Thank you for the support. Mom you have been one of the most supportive people in my life. I thank you for pushing me because it definitely paid off. Finally, the class of 2009. I couldn't imagine graduating with anyone else. We did it! Seniors '09!

It sounds cliché, but four years already? Katie and Angie, where do I even start? I can't even begin to name all our stupid inside jokes. Outing club trips were always awesome. Sam, Renee, Julia, and Kelly, I'll never forget our summers at Sam's pool, CD swaps, or prom night at Denny's! Michelle, thanks for baking and sharing your pretzels with me. I wouldn't have made it through physics without you. Chana, Pride and Prejudice was hilarious, you make an awesome Lady Catherine. I'm gonna miss our Starbucks runs. So many good times at Ridin'Hy! AP Gov crew from last year, watching the election and inauguration in Connor's basement was so much fun. I'm glad we survived that class! Oh, and I have to thank everyone in Ms. Muldoon's class with me: We <3 Phyllis! Goodbye SWHS, and thanks so much to everyone.

I still can't believe I'm a senior writing this! Jillian, forever my best friend. I would never have made it without you. To my Mom and the others who aren't here to see this in person, I hope you have a good view up there. You're the reasons I'll never give up. Class of '09:

Everyone tells you to cherish these four years because they go by so fast, but you never really listen until it's over. I just can't believe that I'm finally a senior and will have to say goodbye to some of the best friends I've ever made. Jen, Emma, Emily, Julia, and Kristen you all have been there for me through the good and the bad times and I will always remember the times we spent here. The beach, Cape Cod, Saratoga, Emma's backyard, prom, New York City/the photo cab, hockey and football games, road trips and the hundreds of sleepovers. You will always be the friends I remember the most in life because you know me the best, and I love you for that. Thank you to everyone who made these four years amazing, and Mom and Dad who always pushed me to go further. Congrats class of '09 and good luck.

"It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right. I hope you had the time of your life"

Coming in to high school, I remember how scared I was my first day of freshman year. I was worried none of my friends would be in my classes, that my teachers would be mean, and I was worried about getting lost. I look at my four years at South Windsor High and realize how much I have grown as a person. I look back at the teachers I have had, the friends I have made, and I cannot believe my high school experience is over. I would not give up these memories for anything. The car rides with Brianna, Tommy, and Zach, prom, senior reception. These memories will be with me always. I will miss high school, but at the same time I am ready to face the real world with all I have learned. So Good-Bye South Windsor High.

Angie Les

Cleo, you'll always be my "socially unacceptable" buddy; Katie, I am so glad we decided to join Outing Club freshman year; Sammy K, you're the most artistic panda I know; Renée, you're the most obsessive Julie Andrews fan; Kelly, definitely the best pterodactyl; Connor Ronror Dumbledore; Patrick, you're 80 but we love you anyways; Hannah Reichle, you're my favorite dance partner; Fallon, I love your smile and laugh; Laura, best lunchtime stories; Julia, we all envy your English skills; Hannah Kotler, you'll always be my Spanish buddy. Someday we'll make it to Quito. I want to sincerely thank the faculty members who have led me to grow so much during these few years. Finally, great thanks to my parents who have unconditionally supported all of my endeavors, whether they have led me to the rain forests of Costa Rica and Panamá or the mountains of Alaska.

It's getting late and I finally decided to actually write my senior write-up. I feel like this is how most of my high school career has been, waiting until the last minute before finally making a decision and getting on with the work that needs to be done. However, thanks to the people that have surrounded me, despite some tough weeks or months ... or classes, I don't think I regret anything. Without listing any names, for fear of leaving someone out, I'll say that I really appreciate those of you who've put up with me and stuck with me (and my obsessions) throughout high school. Especially those of you who have been with me for an even longer time or have spent time around me constantly, such as during Disney or Hershey. There's not enough room here to really go into detail on any of the awesome things we've done together. Alright I'm fed up with not naming people so I'll just say: Sammy, Kelly, and Julia, we've been so close for so long and you'll always be extra special to me! You've always been there.

I can't believe how fast these four years have flown by. So many memories that will not be forgotten. I want to thank my parents for always believing in me. To Brian, Steve, Dan, Nick, Jeff, Colin and Conner-you guys are like brothers. I couldn't have made it through High School without you. Rebecca-Thanks for putting up with me and letting me hang out with you at UConn. Rachel-This school will be yours soon-just be yourself and have fun. Thanks for the memories. I love you guys, GO SOX!

It's really weird to think that this year is the last year I will ever be learning in a South Windsor school. I remember years ago when I thought college was an eon away, yet now it's right around the corner calling for everyone. Over the years I've lived in South Windsor I've met a lot of great people. They are the ones who really made living in this boring town so tolerable! I'd just like to thank everyone who supported me over the years, and I'd also like to thank Le Gail (Dorothy, Shawn, Jeff, Noheli) for sharing some pretty fun times with me. It's been great, really. Good luck to everyone in the infinite opportunities they will experience in their lives!

It's extremely difficult to sum up my entire high school experience in only 850 characters, and, like most things in high school, I waited until the last possible minute to write it. High school was only as great as it was because of the Outing Club. Getting lost on a trail, hiking in the rain ("still river"), rafting in 30- degree water, snowshoeing, backpacking, and sledding in Vermont, I will never forget a minute of it. Three Bears! I love you guys; high school would have been so boring without you. Angie: Thank you for taking pictures every step of the way. String, Hershey, Disney, Prom, Model UN (Harvard!), Dude Ranch, Ice Skating, England, Study Parties, Election night, Movies, Lock- ins, Halloween, I could not have survived high school without my friends- Super Smash Bros Seniors! Thank you Mom for your support, and for taking us on all kinds of hikes even though you have a fear of heights. It was an awesome awkward stressful amazing inspiring tiring unforgettable experience, but we finally made it!

I've had so many good times over the past 4 years here at SWHS with Danielle, Julia, McKenzie and the girls. Dee, I'm so glad that we met when I moved here, you're one of the best friends I could have asked for. So many good times and more to come since we are going to school together! Jewlz I am going to miss you so much next year, it is going to be so different without you. I am so happy that I met you when you moved here and even if we live across the country I will never forget you! Kenz we've had a lot of good times over the years, hiding in the basement for hours haha. Hopefully we go to school near each other! I would not have made it through the past five year of living here without my Dad, Mom and sister Krista, I love you guys!

Congratulations to the class of '09!

I can't believe it's over, yet I feel relieved that it is. We've learned from our mistakes and realized who our true friends are. The Group- we're ridiculous and I love you all for it: campovers, bonfires, and we even survived drama-filled prom! The girls- I couldn't ask for better ones to go through life with: dance, spirit, phases, bingo, Twilight, hot tubs, girls nights, spooning, sushi, tears, laughing 'til our abs killed- we helped each other get through everything and I always knew who to call when I needed Starbucks and ice-cream to cure a broken heart. Argentina6. Bonnie Hayes Dancers- I love our chaos in and out of Boston. Britt- You're my best friend: movie nights, sledding, NH, anxiety attacks. Ethan- Road-trip adventures, thanks for putting up with me. Colton- I'll pick out your outfit any day. Class of 09...we're finally outta here!

Before anything I want to thank my family, Mom, Dad, Michael, Kelle. You two are my best freinds and I wouldn't be who I am without you. Mom and Dad, thank you for not being too strict with me, but not too laid back. And for my friends, the 6-0 guys, Norms, Lisa, way to many more I can honestly say your my best friends. Good times and bad but always worth it. The football guys I missed it. The group, never a dull moment, Newport! Adventures! I'll never forget you guys. Every one of my friends that made high school fun. I love you guys and thank you. Also, I want to leave the school to Lyle Rotondo, my freshman friend. BEAT ROCKVILLE! 6-0! Keep in touch.

I can't believe how fast these four years have gone by. For the summer of '08, trips to the beach, tailgating, concerts and long nights, the memories will never be forgotten. Julia aka JB Hoods I love you like a sister, I don't know how we survived this past year, but we did. To conversations at four o'clock in the morning and our craziness at a party; it will be missed truly when you move back to Cali! Danielle and Chelsea you are my girls, from nights at apt. 112, weekend nights, and our movie nights you both make weekends memorable. To the rest of my girls I leave so many memories behind with you, I love you girls! To my LAX girls' you're like another family, to SEXY D and our long bus rides; you sure made the seasons fun. Coach Duke you're an amazing coach, your words of wisdom have allowed me to grow as a person and player. Mom, Dad and James I love you guys you're the best, thank you for being by my side all these years and several more to come.

Missy Meegan

It seems so hard to believe it's over. But the path getting here was so worth it. So many unforgettable memories with people I'll remember forever. To my parents and family, a little outrageous but I really wouldn't want it any other way. Thank you, especially Mom and Dad for allowing my dreams to come true. Nicole—I've missed you taking up space in my room and talking about Fernando but thank you for everything ... Come visit next year! Lisa, Kelly and Jake, have fun and be good! You'll miss me once I'm gone, I promise. And Greg, I missed you this year but thanks for still keeping a smile on my face. We've come so far already, couldn't ask for anything more. Week in the Cape (light switch). Rascal Flatts summer nights. Brew Crew. "Walkin' like a one man army." Time Flies. Love Stays. Melissa, or Melanie to my Mom ... Creeper? Amazing week! Bradleyyy, this CANNOT be campus! And to all the rest, you guys are the ones who have made this time so enjoyable; memories to last a lifetime. Congratulations 2009, we did it!

My time in high school has been amazing. Nick, Dan, Colin, Neal – my best friends, I hope you all find wonderful jobs and have a great life. Don't forget that Red Drink is gross and that the floors are oak, not maple. Brian, Jeff, Connor, Pat, Nick J, Steve, Joey V, you guys have always been there for me and I hope that you guys go to great colleges and get amazing jobs too. And if you ever get down, just annoy the rest of us with a Facebook message or McRoll someone. Sometime we've got to all get together and do more late night Taco Bell runs. To my family, thank you for helping me get through high school alive. You're the best. For the robotics kids, good times for all four years, and I hope you guys have continued success in the future. Nationals in 2007 was a blast! To the dodgeball kids – keeping throwing hard and show no mercy. I'll be back to show you how to REALLY play dodgeball! We did it Seniors 2009!

There had been so many times that I have enjoyed while here at South Windsor High School, but to avoid sounding completely cheesy and taking up too much space I won't get into that. Instead I would just like to give a couple of shout-outs. Tommy, you're my partner in crime and without you, well I would be fine, but I love you man. Tyler, you have always been there even if I didn't necessarily want you there and I thank you for that. Petkis, you will always be my horse wondering off screen. Sara-Lyn you have been nothing short of a best friend. To sweet Jake, there are so many things that I would like to say to you, but you won't be able to comprehend them until you are a grown up. Greider I heart you and your Cute Undying love for life itself. I'd like to thank Amy Hankard for introducing her presence and assets into my life. Last but not least thank you Steph Elliott for being a perfect prom date(Za). To everyone I couldn't fit in I am sorry!!!

These last four years have been indescribable. I can't believe it's finally our turn. Hillary-"I got my license!" spending every hour of the summer with you, 'tricks' in your pool, fireworks, new years, DMB, drive my car? All I have to say is I love you and you will always be my Ikki twin. Ally- "oh nice." Laughing till we cry, trampoline, bike ridez, 54 steps, storm, RH, astronaut. Enough said. Michelle- Talking to you in the sprinkler in kindergarten was the best choice I have ever made. Love you forever. Marissa and Kate- since third grade you've always been there for me. John Mayer, haha! Jill-you love cupz, 'bored' game, thanks for always taking care of me! Mkeav and Rob- thank you for always being there. Soccer and bball girls- I'll miss you! All the rest- I love you guys. To the class of '09, we did it. CYA!!

I never thought I would say that my four years of high school are coming to a close. It only seemed days ago that I walked into the high school, looking up at the seniors. Through these four years, I have had some of the best times of my life. Matt K., Brian S., Jeff M., Rob H., Bobby P., and my bro, you guys are my boys. Some of my memories include: the goddess bunny, Pringles can, yep yep, Soloway's weekly sleepovers, Bobby's sleepovers, good evening Sam, the lakehouse, the tool, Halo (I was never addicted), my fingaz, rapid fire, kevmeista, Bart cleans my dad's shoes, chillen at Jeff's on weekends, Narragansett with Matt and Bobby, and falling off the tobacco truck. Other people that have made these last four years great: Jake G., Joe, Colby, Czernicki, Vinny, Rinker, CJ, Scanlon, Marissa, Cooney, JB, Emily, Jake B., Norms, Ally, Michelle Baj, Lauren G. and Michelle Brault. And lastly, I want to thank Mr. Brenner for being the most influential teacher I have ever had. I wish the best of luck to the class of '09.

Jessica Mrugala

If you are taking the time to read this, then chances are we affect each other one way or another, so thank you. Thank you to you, reader, for being a part of these four years, my life, and who I am. Thank you to my best friend for giggles, smiles, and tears, and of course adopting me into the family. To the girl down the hill, who I admire for her strength, hope, and math skills. To my neighbor who taught me to speak my mind. To my parents who I owe everything to and the brother who teased me, I am lucky to have you. To the people who chauffeured me around, listened to my raging, and supported me. To the groups I joined and friends who helped make it all happen. To the first boy I ever loved. To girl's night, Sushi, and sappy movies. To memories thicker than bricks that built the building they were created in. To hope, to futures, to remembering. To you. To me. To us. Best of luck, and never forget. "May the dreams of your past, be the reality of your future."

A toast to: Mom and Dad, without your continual love, support, and will to ignore my strange mannerisms, I would be forever lost. Erin, I hope you know that "brotherly love" and "continual annoyance" are interchangeable ways to show how important you are to me. Melissa, you've made the last two years the best two of my life. Dano and Balbert, I don't think there is anything I could write about us that wouldn't get censored. Patrick, we've grown up doing almost everything together, and as long as it didn't rain, it was awesome. Saagity Saag Saag to the Saagmaster, I hope you one day forgive me for throwing the whale sticker at your eye. Samantha, the honeybear. Ruria, Ratrie, and the rest of the outing club, I have never been happier than going on adventures with all of you. Most importantly, the bro's: Dano, Balbert, Steve, Steve, Nick, Nick, Jeff, Colin, Patrick, and

NEAL. There are simply no words. Except, Alan, that we have to go back!

Jeff Murphy

There's no possible way to abbreviate the past four years of my life, but I'm going to do the best that I can. I want to thank my parents and my sister Lauren for putting up with me and standing behind me everyday of their lives. We ride together; we die together, Matt, Rob, Kevin, Brian, and CJ. I can't even explain how ugly all of you are (ha-ha). Seriously though, you guys really gave a new meaning to brothers from another mother. Michelle Baj, Marissa, Jill, Ally, Kate, and Kelly. I love you all and this isn't the end. Steve, Ric, Bobby, Tommy, Vinny and Joe M. I'm gonna miss playing and not playing mlco with all of you. Mcdougal, Colby, Rinker, Czernick, JB, Joe, Tattleman, Scanlon, Birch, Cooney, and Jake. I'm gonna miss all of you, especially Mcdougal. Michelle D, Michelle Brault, Emily, Alyssa and Jess. You're all crazy, but I loved every minute of it. Amy it's definitely a love/love, I know we've had our differences but I don't regret a thing and I'm glad we're friends. I wish the best of luck to the class of 2009. We made it.

"You can always re-take the class, but you can never re-live the party."

Looking back now, the past four years have held so many memories. I would've never imagined that it would've gone by so fast. There's so many things that I will never forget, such as homecoming, football games, prom, going to the beach, chinese firedrills, parties, and so much more. It wasn't only the things outside of school that made high school great, it was also our study hall escapades and our self-appointed early release to Dunkin' Donuts and Moe's. Through the years there have been so many inside jokes, it's almost impossible to keep track. Some of them that we will never forget are; "Mega Tool, IHOP early Saturday mornings, how to pop lock and drop it, padiddle, and mittens a.k.a fatty." I can't believe this is it! We're finally graduating and into the real world. I wouldn't have made it through without, Tessa, Steph, Keri, Denise, Amanda, Meghann, Gio, Sarah, Mark and Colby, love you guys!! All I have to say to my friends is "WHY!?! YOU KNOW WHY!!!" Congrats class of 2009! WOOT!

It's been a fast four years and I cannot believe that I made it this far. I remember everything from playing Axis and Allies with Mr. Frank to Mrs. Mawhinney making English class fun, two semesters in a row. Mom, Dad and Alexis, I love you, thank you for being there when I needed it and supporting me the way you did. Sara F you stole my couch, but Forrest Gump and seeing you jump on the hay ride was fun. I love you Keri-I've known you since second grade and now we're best friends. We have made so many memories together from Wouldn't it be Nice to Employee of the Month and we will make many more because every moment with you is a memory. Thank you everyone and Congratulations to the class of '09. Good luck and best wishes in the years to come!

Amanda- You're my best friend, there's just so many things I could say, I guess it's just the fact that we have those nights where we sit around and do nothing but we still manage to make each other laugh until we cry. Colby Tyler-"You make me so hot, you make me wanna drop, you're so ridicules, I can barely s top, I can hardly breath, you make me wanna scream, you're so fabulous, you're so good to me baby baby". Val- We've had so many tears but then again we've had even more laughs, I'm so

Nicole Nelson

Wow I never thought I would see the day that high school will finally be over. I had so many fun and exciting memories here, from meeting Jon to going out every night with Laura and Samantha. Laura, I will always remember sprinting into class with you just to see that we had a sub. I am going to miss everyone. I would like to thank my friends and family especially my mom for always being there for me. From staying out all night to coming home real late, prom, taco bell, road trips and a overall best year I am going to miss everyone. Class of 2009, congratulations we finally did it.

I can't believe it's already over. Friends- thank you for making my life amazing and fun. We're all nuts and I love it. Mark, Sam, and Jess- I loved dishing about giraffes, British Broadcasting Companies, and dance captains. You guys are my best friends, thanks for sticking together for all these years. Spectrum- you've been family for four years. I'll always remember you all. Mark- you are amazing and mean so much to me, thank you for "putting up with me". Dance girls especially Hill, Liz and Becca- with all the Bonnie Shenanigans, you kept me sane. "Hot dates? I don't do hot dates. I'm a punk Britney Spears type." Cast- summers would be so boring without you. The rehearsals were just part of it; it was everything else we did that I will remember. Walks in the rain, pool parties, so many memories created. To everyone I love, I wish you luck in the "real world". I'll be thinking of you.

To have success in high school, one must use my FOUR STEP PROBLEM SOLVING PLAN (© Robert Coughlin and Company): (1) Have at least one milk explosion incident. Whether it is in the cafeteria or in a hotel room on the Harvard Model United Nations field trip, you have to experience it. If possible, get it on video. (2) Keep good company. This section is more for me to list some funny incidents. JH, do these things ring a bell: "watashi," over 1000 jetman dance, fighting dreamers, and many more. RV, what about our basketball and physics scheme, and our movie production? And of course, CM and VM, if I were to list all our experiences together they'd run the span of a novel. Bros for life. (3) Do fun stuff after school. For me, it was Model UN. Shout out to Mr. Frank and the MUN dominators: SG, CM, SP, MT, JH, R&H ST, RL, and AF. (4) Never forget those who helped. Special thanks to Mr. Mys, Dr. L, and both Mrs. Ss!

Caitlin Pelan

"If you can't laugh at yourself, life's gonna seem a whole lot longer than you like." Wow, it's unbelievable to think that high school is over. I owe everything to my friends, who have always been there for me through thick and thin. So many great memories of getting lost in the city, playing game cube, learning to drive, two proms, senior reception, the Penn trip, CVS incidents, getting attacked by Xavier, MIT weekend, dinners, never finding a parking space, Cape Cod weekends, "goldfish accidents" and concerts. I think that it is safe to say I can move onto college with great memories of high school! I could not imagine my life without Matthew Silva, and I will never forget our immeasurable nights filled with inside jokes, especially "Is it because she is a girl?!" Overall, Thanks to everyone who has helped me along the way, I do not know where I would be without you guys. Grandma(s), Grandpa(s), Mom, Dad, and Alex, thanks for always believing in me, even on my bad days. Always remember to "Meet me...in Montauk."

Stephen Petkis

First, thank you to my family for all of their love and support over the past 17 years; I'm so blessed to have you guys. Rachel, thank you for making these past two years so amazing. I can't imagine what life would have been without you. Tommy and Joe, you are the funniest, most genuine people I've ever met. I'm honestly proud to call you both my best friends. Ric, you've always been more like a brother to me than anything else. I know I can count on you if I ever need anything. Jeff, you have the most inaccurate arm on the face of the planet but you're still the man. Thomson, high school wouldn't have been the same without you. Make sure you remember me when you're President. Raghu, Saagar, Josh, the Mikes, Mitch, Matt, and Dylan thanks for always pushing me in class and being some of the best friends I have. Ally and Marissa, my favorite girls, make sure you always stay exactly the same as you are right now. Finally, congrats to the entire senior class. It's been a haul but this is it. Now let's blow this popsicle stand.

Caitlynn Piacentini

The past four years have had their ups and downs but in the end they all became memories. I will miss everyone but I'm glad that I have them in my life; Denise N: We may of talked on and off over the years but we got to know one another and one good thing is I get to call you a friend, Julie N: You were always there for me with your smiley personality I hope that never changes about you, Colby Tyler: Even though we kind of just started talking this year you have just the most random personality that can make anyone laugh which is the best part about you and I could never forget your infamous party dog, Ashley (Smurf): You will not be forgotten, I'm so glad to call you one of my best friends Crutches and I will promise to visit as much as possible, Beth (Crutches): Wow our random stories and our so called language those were some good times and Kevin A: You'll always be my best friend no matter where life will take us. I can't believe it's actually here. All I can say is it's been... unique, I have met a lot of really great people as well as some that I don't particularly care for, but hey let's focus on the good. Throughout my time here at South Windsor High I have become close to a small number of people but I wouldn't change that for the world. I would like to thank my friends Brent and Pete for being two of the best friends a teenager could hope for. I'd also like to thank Ms. Henchey for being the best teacher on the face of the planet. And I can't forget Maggie-you have helped me become the person I am today. Thanks for sticking by me through everything baby.

My friends are what made this year so memorable. Rob Hart, we make the best chefs ever. Matt Keaveny, you know what you look like? Brian Soloway, just let us know when you're going on vacation next. Colby Galuska aka Brick aka always a Rinker Mystic and an Orange Vitamin. Joey Sargenti, the best wrestler I know and the person with the most etiquette. To all my other friends who I had great times with this year Czernicki, Ingalls, Lavangie, Lopez, Lauri, Doogs, Healy, and anyone else I might have forget you made this year the best. The whole wrestling team, great job this year and you better carry on the legacy we have started now. Oh yeah, and how are my eyes"

"I get by with a little help from my friends." - John Lennon

These 4 years of high school have been filled with memories and times of laughter. I wouldn't have made it through without the support of my friends, and family. I have had many friends who have been by my side to help me through tough times and bumps in the road. There are 5 though who did their own part in helping me. The 1st one on that list would be Caty, without her I don't know where my life would be. Then there's Zach who has been a good friend since 1st grade. Jason made laugh and got me through things just by talking. Then there's Josh, without his rides to school I would still be stuck on the bus with my brother. Jordan's the one who I truly sent 200 texts a day. These 5 amazing people are the ones who I got out of bed to see, without them who knows where I would be. Then there's family, they may drive you crazy but they do care about you. The past is a memory made up of smaller memories. Like hanging out with friends and having good times. Good Luck to the Class of 2009!

"To love another person is to see the face of God" -Les Misérables

Wow. I never saw the shy, self-conscious kid from four years ago turning out like this. What an unbelievable journey it's been. The biggest thing that I've learned is that you never really know what you're capable of. I've been able to do things that I never thought I would do. These are the result of the friendship that I have found during these years. Kyle, it's been a while since we went to Chuck E. Cheese for some good times. It's been fun having you to crack jokes with. Becca, Jess, Patrick, Kellie, Colin, Molly, and Jen, thank you for the laughs over the years. Samantha and Jessica, there are no words that explain what your friendship has meant to me. You two are my sisters that will never be. I'll miss our "talks". Katie, thank you for liking me for who I am. It's liberating to be myself and not worry what others will think. Though I have many memories in these hallowed halls, I am ready to "run faster, stretch out my arms further, and beat on against a current to a brighter future." haha. Peace.

"Live in the moment and make it so beautiful that it will be worth remembering" - Bubbles

While looking back at the last four years, who would have imagined how fast they would have gone by. Here's to pyro parties, sledding, late night convo's, and all the friends who stuck by my side through it all. To Bubbles, how could I have made it through this past year with out our secret language, Friendly's talks, and our "fun" times. To Smurf, the great talks, late night runs to the gas station for batteries for light bright paint brushes, great times...the "three musketeer's and Kevin" will live on. To Lila, La-La Barry, Karin, and everyone else, thanks for all the great memories over the past four years. They have been a blast. And a special thanks to the teachers and Mrs. Piantek and Mrs. Dunham, thanks for putting up with all of us through everything. To the Class of 2009, WE DID IT!!!!

Brent Rogers

To my closest friends, there is just so much to say, but a few of the highlights would have to be springy friend, all you can eat at Campion's, Six Flags, elm knoll, midnight bowling, corn maze, the lake house, after prom trip to Newport. There have been so many laughs and good times but like everything in life it must come to an end. To my two closest friends Caty and Brennan I will always be there for you guys. To Caty I hope we continue to be close friends through college and even beyond, you truly are irreplaceable. To Brennan I hope you will always be there with me. You're my wing man, my right hand man; I know I can always count on you. To Chelsie, my one and only. You are the best thing that ever happened to me. I regret many things but you aren't one of them, I hope it will always be forever and ever. My time with you has been amazing, like thunderstorms in the summer. I will never forget you. Promise. And to everyone I leave you with this"live the life you want to live, live with no regrets."

"The mountains are calling and I must go." – John Muir

850 characters to sum up the best four years of my life. I should start with Outing Club, and our epic trips to Mt. Washington or Chakura or Liberty or whatever we do instead. Hannah, Fallon, Angie, Katie, Julia, Sam T, Sam K, Kevin, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Andrews, Mr. Jusilla: it's been an honor riding Barney with you. The group – Brian, Sam, Steve, Nicks, Dan: enough said. Mr. Olio: three interesting years. Paul: stay safe. Let's go run sometime. Connor: since aftercare in third grade, every moment has been entertaining. Through Boy Scouts, sleepovers, and hiking trips, I wouldn't trade it for anything. Jess: I really like you =). Mom, Dad, Ryan: thanks for all of the support and fun times. I hope the future unfolds slowly, passes peacefully, and brings prosperity for all of you. I'll take these lessons I've learned from ski trips, late night biology studying, and super smash and grow with them. Hopefully, the next four years will be even better. Done. 3, 2, 1, 0.

"Most of our lives are a series of images; they pass us by like towns on a highway. But sometimes a moment stuns us as it happens and we know that this instant is more than a fleeting image. We know that this moment, every part of it, will live on forever." One Tree Hill

From freshman year to senior year, I feel like I have had a lot of moments that will live on forever. The moments with my friends will be remembered most. From freshman year, I'll remember the notebook, movie nights, revealing my true self and perfect mates. From sophomore year, I'll remember phone conversations, sleepovers and nicknames. From junior year, I'll remember France, Prom, aliens, mud sliding and codes. From senior year, I'll remember Homecoming, Australian guy, Twilight dates, French bread, my first and last spirit week t-shirt and more. I'll remember cross-country, pasta parties and free runs; good luck runners. Thanks to everyone who made my high school years an exciting and unique adventure that will live on forever!

When I look at all the time I have spent in the high school, it all seems like one huge blur, with so many memories packed into one little box. This box is one that has electrifying colors of blues, pinks and greens. In addition to these colors, are bows and streamers signifying great moments and achievements. These past four years, have been incredibly difficult and challenging, but overwhelmingly wonderful. Dorothy, thank you for sending the Candy Gram. I am so happy things worked out in the end. Please promise- no more cops and dirty dancing. Rachel, I love our Dunkin Donuts Dates, I will always be "your" Tila. CC, "What is love? Baby don't hurt me!" Brian, thank you for not making me the only geek in English!! Mr.Polish, you're the reason I smile everyday, you're my angel, and my best friend, Kocham cię. CONGRATS GUYS!!

"I live to love & laugh a lot, and that's all I need" –Kenny Chesney

There are so many people that have made high school worthwhile, I just don't have the space to write it all. Girls and boys, I wouldn't be the same without you, love you all. Caitlin and Pavi; "Excuse me, I'm vip." Thanks for always being there, you girls are my best friends. Good luck next year, I'll miss you both like crazy. Geoffrey, I will always remember the four years we spent together; you'll always be in my heart. Good luck next year and don't forget to wear the tie clip when you reach the big leagues. "Everything in life happens for a reason"

I will never forget my years at SWHS. Growing up, everyone always told me high school will be the best years of your life, and they were right. It had its share of downfalls, but I can't help remembering all the good. To all my friends, V.I.P: Caitlin and Liz, Lindsey, Jess, brother Caf, all the ASAP boys, the cheerleaders, and many more. You guys mean so much to me, and know no matter where life takes us, I will always be here for you. I'll never forget some of the greatest memories from cheerleading all four years, summer bon fires, P.O.W, da wayne, and so much more. I want to thank all my teachers, Mrs. Cecchini and Coach Martin, for making such an impact on my life. To my family, especially Mom and Dad, thank you for making me the person I am. I love you so much. As I move on from high school, I hope to continue an amazing life, wish good luck to everyone, and give love to all my fav's. Congratulations Class of 2009!

Marc Schneider

"To roam is to search for something new, on local trails or halfway around the world in a place you've never been. On a mountain bike, you can cover a great distance in a short period of time; or a short distance in a great period of time. They say that the journey can be more important than the destination, but in mountain biking there is no destination. There is just a bike, a rider and a place to ride."- Roam

There is no real destination in life, just a journey. The journey has definitely been an interesting one. From "Dentist" at the first Evening of Swing to FIRST robotics, it's been fun. I don't have a planned destination, but I can tell you that I'm going to make it a good journey. My only hope is to always have a passion. To all my friends, who are too many to list, thank you for the experiences. I will miss you greatly.

"If you're in a war, instead of throwing a hand grenade at the enemy, throw one of those small pumpkins. Maybe it'll make everyone think how stupid war is, and while they are thinking, you can throw a real grenade at them." – Jack Handey

From Playground Palooza and the Talent Show Freshman year, to Rock the Globe and numerous Webster Underground appearances, the band members and I have always had a great time. Thank you DSchultz, Sokol, Stuntman, B-Rad, Frozenburger, and Melough for helping me appreciate and develop my passion for music. I hope to continue studying music in college and teach others about the marvel that music truly is. Nothing will ever beat visiting Argentina. Traveling to South America was by far the best experience of all. Model UN, Mock Trial, Dodgeball, and Jazz Club were worthwhile and entertaining. Summer bonfires and parties were the always exciting. Thank you Amy for constantly being my companion. Finally, thank you to all my friends for being there at the most crucial times.

Kelsey Selig

"There are no random acts...We are all connected...You can no more separate one life from another than you can separate a breeze from the wind..."-Mitch Albom

Nothing can compare to the people I have met and the things I have done while attending SWHS. I first want to thank my parents, you have been there for every event whether it be athletic or academic and I cannot express how grateful I am for that. You mean so much to me, I love you both. And where would I be without my best friends? Casey, we have so many great memories: Getting the best seats at all the concerts, countless volleyball games, rocking out to NB in the car and eating tons of food. LIFE IS AMAZING! Maddie, I can always count on you, whether we are going to the movies, hanging out at parties or taking road trips to the beach, we always have a great time. Finally, my volleyball girls: CCC EAST CHAMPS 2008! The season was amazing and our fan section made it that much better. Congratulations to the Class of 2009, I can't wait to see what our futures hold!

Peace out South Windsor High School. It's been great!

Dara Slossberg

850 characters aren't enough to say everything about my amazing experience and best chapter in my life. It's unbelievable how fast these four years have gone by. I never would have thought we'd be graduating already. Over the years I've met great classmates, teachers, and friends that I'm grateful for having a part of my life. Most of all, I wouldn't of been able to get this far without my family. You have always been supportive of my goals and accepted the good and the bad choices. Biff, my partner in crime, always have been there since sixth grade. Hopefully we'll leave our pranks to a lonely freshman. Andrew, I don't know what I'd do without you. You will forever be in my heart, I love you. Justin, you've showed me and taught me so much and if it wasn't for you I wouldn't be who or where I am without your help. To the rest of my friends, we aren't going to remember the days, we'll remember the moments. The moments are priceless, and I will keep them with me forever. Congrats class of 09 it's been fun, but we're finally out!

I can't believe how fast these four years have gone by. It has been great, and I'll never forget the amazing memories. I couldn't have asked for better friends: Rachel, Alyssa, Molly, Maddie, Tracey, and Kelly. We've had so many good times: France, Disney, sleepovers, dance parties, Block Island, driving around with no place to go, and dining out adventures. Rachel (rjanik) I'm sorry, I thought you were a hamburger. Alyssa- you wish you played the cello. Molly, we've had some good chats sitting on my counter. Tracey, we make a mean bouche de noe! Kkrol...enough said. Maddie, what would I do without you? Mom, Dad, Shannan, and Lily, I love you guys so much, and thank you for everything! Good luck to everyone, and congratulations class of 09!

Sara Smith

I've had unbelievable memories here that I'll never forget. Hershey, Pennell Reunions, Prom '08, AP Chem, Disney and The Backstreet Boys. Ashley, I'll miss our give and go's. To my freshman Sam Bastone-Good luck next year. To the tennis team especially Ariel and Bisi. Coach Rizzuto, thank you for not being just a teacher but a friend too. Mike, I love you. Don't ever forget that. My cousin Matt, it was nice to finally have family at school. My "little" cousin Steph, we were 1 year off!

Kevin you're the perfect brother. SWHS is yours now, make the best of it. Mom & Dad thank you for everything.

"Friendship is unnecessary, like philosophy, like art... It has no survival value; rather is one of those things that give value to survival." – C.S. Lewis

As our final year of high school draws to a close, it's hard to imagine how far we've all come. Rob H, Matt K, Kevin M, and Jeff M, I can honestly say we've been through it all. Murf's lake house, absolute giggle fests, Edub rides, Rob's house every day after school, calling out of work, Xbox Live moments with the boys, Randomly falling asleep, hockey games; the list is endless. And to my other friends, Czerniki, Colby, Rinker, Doogle, GloveMan, Ciechowski, Sarge, Levangie, Steve, Lopez, Thatcher, Ingalls, Nostin; it's been real. So many good times chillen at Czerniki's house that I'll never forget. Ally, Jess, Michelle Baj, Marissa, Jill and Kate, you all are the best and so many good times with the "crew." Finally I'd like to thank my parents and sister for always being there and having my back. Good luck to everyone; now we face the real world.

Caty-Where do I even begin? You're the best cousin and friend I could've ever asked for. Not going to see you every day isn't going to be easy. You're my best friend no matter where we are. Ali- one word CAMPING. Chelsie- oh boy we go way back try to Mr. A in the middle school. To my Techies- you guys have definitely made my years here very memorable. Joe- dumping trash into Carlson's truck what were you thinking? Carlson- you have made the most impact on me while being here. My high school career wouldn't be as eventful as it is now if it wasn't for you. Josh- I'm not sure where to even begin with you either. You're my best friend and not seeing you is something I'm really not looking forward to. FOREVER AND ALWAYS THE CLASS OF 2009.

Dorothy Staron

"We didn't start the fire, no we didn't light it, but we tried to fight it."

For me high school is like splitting a cross country race into thirds; run the first part with your head, the middle with personality, and the last with your heart. But like any race, high school has been about more than just finishing. It's been about knowledge, creativity, building a foundation for the future and unforgettable memories. Sweet Allison: the list could go on but for now let's just stay friends till we can actually wear those old lady dresses. Ho-hum hippo Adam, soda spill/Mr. Barresi's phone call, thanks for the support at running events. Legail gang: (Noheli, Brandyn, Shawn, Jeff) bonfires- I promise to never bring the marshmallows again. Jill: no more Sean Paul/cops. Dziadek, Babcia, Tata, Mama, Andrzej, i Ania, DZIEKUJE! In the end it doesn't matter whether you come in first, the middle, or last. You can say "I have finished". There is a lot of satisfaction in that, so congratulations class of 2009, WE FINISHED!

Matthew Swan

"If you can dream it, you can do it." – Walt Disney

It just seems like I was walking into this school getting ready for my first high school homeroom. The time in this school has flown by. When thinking about leaving this school, I know it is going to be kind of sad leaving all of my friends but at the same time a good time for me to go out and make new ones. It will also be a good time for me to go out and be myself and be done with all of this high school drama also. Even though this point in my life is coming to an end, I will always have the memories of the things I did and don't regret. To my girls, Erin, Sara and Tarra, we made it and I know we are all ready to get on with our life outside of this school. Even though our random trips to Starbucks, spooksville and adventures to the beach will be missed. Mom and Dad, also thank you for always being there for me and never giving up with me, I love you guys. As it comes to an end I will never forget anyone and during this new chapter in my life I will always be able to look back at my memories. So here we go class of 09, let's do this!

Molly Swenson

How fast time flies, through my years in high school I've made some incredible friends and to them I say thank you; I couldn't have made it through these four years without you. We shared some awesome times at the mothership, Starbucks, soup, salad, breadsticks, sitting on counter tops and unwinding, dance parties, let me see yo hips swiing, prom-a drama, country concerts, hello lover it's may 30th, Hooters, Bonfires, Uncle Fester, and a whole mess of other things that I'm forgetting. We definitely made some memories worth looking back on. To my family, thank you for always supporting me, I definitely owe you guys a lot and I love you! The time I spent at SWHS has been the very best, it was definitely a roller coaster, but I wouldn't change a thing.

Rob Swietek

Over the past four years I have had an excellent experience with high school. I have also been blessed to have such great friends along the way such as Ginzy, Herlihy, Doran, and everyone else from hockey. I had a great time with hockey, although I gave up many weekends for it, and will always remember times such as playoff weekend that I spent with all of my friends. I wish everyone the best of luck in the future and hope everyone has a successful and happy life.

I'd like to thank the friends who have always stuck by me. Kelly- so many unforgettable times from the beginning on the monkey bars up to now. It's a good thing we didn't let our PRS cliques keep us apart. BB, sorry MW, water, "where's my antenna?", donuts flying, and other shameful moments, but I'll never forget VA (duhhh), double dates, quoting movies, meet Virginia playlist, and many more amazing times. Kelsey, you and I are concert freaks! Life is AMAZING! We've had so much fun in vball and everything else. We <3 Nickelback (and food). Maddie you've always been such a good friend. "Just remember, the sweet is never as sweet without the sour. And I know the sour, which allows me to appreciate the sweet." -Vanilla Sky

These last few years have been a whirlwind for me. I danced right on through, experiencing as much as I could in the short span of four years that I had. There were ups but also many downs. I lost sight of who I was and found it again more times than I can think of. But, now approaching the biggest turning point in my life, I have finally discovered who I really am and who I will always strive to be. If I said I came to this point on my own, I'd be lying. Dan, you have helped me through the craziest and most horrific times of my life, you've literally saved me and I'll never forget you. I love you. Same to you Rob, Fran and Nadia... you guys were there to help me before I was there to help myself and for that, I'm always thankful. You truly opened my eyes to the way life is meant to be lived. Thank you.

My future has really never looked so bright.

As much as I'm looking forward to college, it's sad to be thinking about leaving South Windsor after spending my whole life here. I'd like to say that high school has been awesome. I ate lunch on cliffs with Outing Club. I lived in a French home with a French family. I argued with kids from across the globe at HMUN. I lasted through 12 crazy years in Troop 62. The Treasure Hunts were both epic and stressful, and there are more to come. I'll never lose my unedited version of "Donchi's Revenge." To my neighborhood buddies, thanks for an exciting childhood. Mom and Dad, thanks for giving me all of these opportunities. Shannon, you're a cool older sister even when you're across the ocean. Olivia, my favorite little brother. I hope I've hit on enough (there's no way I got everything) in these 850 characters. Thanks to all who changed my life, I hope you know who you are. And wherever I end up going to college, you're all welcome, anytime.

High school in a nutshell: bursting out about Florida University in Ms. class, being a guy in "Guys and Dolls", running through the auditorium at the first Pops, "short" jokes, "Steph Tran", bowling with the French exchange students, bursting into spontaneous Shakespeare in Mrs. Jones' English class with Collin Henighen, finally being in the chorus Pops Dance Team, doing the "Flying Squirrel" at the Ropes Course, the elementary kids' visit to the high school Multicultural, "that's what she said" and "you don't even know" everywhere. Thanks to Mrs. Hilton and Mrs. Ludy, Mrs. Quinn, my counselor, my wonderful French teachers Madame Rossano, Madame Cippolini, and Madame McKenna, Ms. Muldoon (exclamation point!), my parents, who support me forever, my sister Thuy, who is my writing arm and cool head, Caty Ventura, Heba from Multicultural Fair, Stephanie Quatracelli, the romantic Tanzia Miller, one with the "freakdom.

"Once again, I find myself with my friends, dancin' the night away, It's like the party never ends, Then again we don't want it to stop, 'cuz tonight's the night" Paul Oakenfold

This is the end, of what we've known for the past 12 years. I am excited and scared to exit my high school life. I can't believe it's already over and I know I wouldn't have been able to do it without my friends, especially my best friend Deanna, for the past 7 years she has been the first one there to help me pull through it all. They say these are the best years of your life and even if it's hard to realize that in certain moments, looking back now I wouldn't change a thing. I am excited to graduate and to pursue my career as a photographer, but I am also scared to have my adult life actually begin. There are way too many inside jokes and good times to even start listing, I just want to thank all my friends and family for these memories I will remember forever.

Clinton Vanderlinden

First of all I want to thank my parents and sister who always pushed me to do my best. Second I want to shout out to all my boys. Murph running tables can't win without you. Wow, I can't believe we're seniors! Almost since day one we've been together from Tech Crew to Monday nights at Campion's, it seems like such a blur. There are just too many good memories to even go into. Jami, I love you no matter what, family always comes first. Kendra, can I just say Socially-Awkward-Edward? Jason, Zach, Katie, Josh, and Sara, do I need to even explain? You know what you mean to me. Brent Rogers, you know your family likes me more than you! Just kidding. Kaitlyn and Erin, what would I do without you? Who else would procrastinate at Tech with me? Joe Kalos, let's not empty trash cans into the back of Carlson's truck anymore, okay? Techies...from our pasta dinners/movie nights to the plays, we've had such good times. Last but not least, to Carlson and Stead because how could I not mention having your cars breaking down and you have to have Stead's dad come pick you up? Classic.

"One way to get the most out of life is to look upon it as an adventure." - William Feather

Looking back on my memories of high school it was an adventure. To my girls, I wouldn't have had these adventures without you. From car rides, flirtin' with danger, prom, house alarms after a late night, tanning... or burning, sitting in a hot tub with no water and just having fun, I wouldn't have changed a thing. Marissa, since kindergarten you have always been there. Whether we were driving around for three hours wasting gas, me owning at Mario Kart wii, or just sitting at someone's house doing nothing, I wouldn't change it. The guys, so many good times, some nights wouldn't have been the same without you. My ballers, I wouldn't have made it through the winter without you. KC, KZ, AH hold it down. Mom, Dad, and Joey, thanks for always being there even if I was being a pain; no one could ask for a better family. So whether we were hittin' up the town or getting stuck on Tuna Street it was always an adventure I will never forget.

Kristin Whitman

These past four years have filled me with so many memories. Melzie you are probs in all of them. Don't know where I'd be without tu cabeza. Making campfires. Shriendlys and shribbles. Shred onion. DA BEAST is like our life. It always smells good at least. Pow heeehh. Sam x gimme. She looks like she's going to murder me. Chader. Hope we see Eduardo again in Florida! To all the teachers that had to put up with us: Petros, Richads, Hoffs, and Shabler, and Pat Mun. Darmack and gellard at tenagra! Let's roll, I'm done with the woods. What do you mean the batteries dead? Puff, puff pass cone. There are so many more but they are 2hot2handle! bfff. To my soccer girls I'm gonna miss you all in my life! Jess you're gonna be so lost without me but you loves it. Mom and Dad, love you both and thanks for everything! Darrel, I mean mustard, rager all day err day! To everyone else, I'm gonna miss you and good luck in life!

Brittany Wickliff

"You can't buy happiness but you can buy ice cream and that's close enough."

It's been four years and amongst the hours of dreaded homework we found time to have fun. Kellie, NH, Sign language, study parties, you have been my best friend through it all. Colton, thanks for putting up with study party giggles and for always being there to put a smile on my face. Ethan, thanks for all the adventures and movie nights. Erin, for all the movies we made and movies we still need to watch. Chem with Quel! Oh Track, for the laps we never ran and the jumps we never took! Especially the sea lions, keep going half fast! To all the days in Mazzona's period 9 geometry class. Kelsey, thanks for the days at the barn! Foster farm staff, the days of corn cannons, big green octopuses and petal cart races may be over but the memories will last a lifetime.

Jonathan Wickliff

"I came, I saw, I conquered." Julius Caesar

I could not have asked for a better set of friends over the last four years. From watching part of every movie Ethan has ever seen to playing office chair basketball in my basement. I could not have asked for a better way to end those weeks. Colton thanks for shunning me from the study hall table when I had an essay due in 20 min and had only finished a sentence since I sat down. Chris thanks for convincing me to do all of those stupid things we did that I would not have done without you. To my track team mates, I could not have asked for a better group of people to run with. To the vaulters I am leaving behind the target is not the bar, the target is two feet over it. Always strive to do better than you have done before.

Chelsie Wilcox

"People get pushed around. beat on, emotionally tormented. People die, people leave-just walk away. We lie, we hate, we love. We cry and bleed and laugh. We do what we want. I do what I want. I am what I am. It is what it is." -Tex

You start high school with one idea: I can't wait for it to end. Now that it's over I take it back. High School is filled with drama, break-ups, fights, fake friends and bullies. What I will remember however, is not all the crap, but all the amazing times I had. I won't remember the boys who broke my heart or the friends who stabbed me in the back. High School showed me I would remember brooms and coffee tables. Running around the woods. Playing near the Pavilions. Falling down a lot. Nose bleeds in the bathroom. Bubble gum and play-dough fights. Car rides, windows rolled down. Phase 10 fights. Tex and Big Red. Dougie Fresh and water slides. Childs hands and shooting stars that really weren't air planes. I'll remember that Jesus came before Dinosaurs, Tool and waiting for someone to yell "switch!".

Laura Wood

"There is a road, no simple highway, between the dawn and the dark of night...and if you go, no one may follow, that path is for your steps alone." Jerry Garcia

Where do I begin? To the Players and CAST kids - we stopped being friends a long time ago. You guys are my family. From parties and shows to hell week and all-nighters, we've done it all together. To my Kids-n-Critters girls, hanging in the back room with you makes my day. The Entertainers crew- interpretive dancing? Incredible. The casts of Millie and the Wiz, I can't imagine high school without you. The walks to Dunkin and endless rehearsals were completely worth it with you guys. 7th period French and everyone from the exchange, we've been together 6 years. Love you all. So many memories...prom08, Spring Awakening, Delaware, boys, all the drama, my pet dog KC, puns, pilates, movie nights, OG, the Glen, my numba one, Brenner's class, blasting music and driving nowhere. To everyone who's off to college or staying here, I'll miss you all. Class of '09!

Kayla Woods

High school was fun while it lasted but I'm glad it's over. To Tyler my little brother and best friend, good luck kid, do good in school and football, don't be afraid to cause a little trouble. Dylan, my little buddy you're my favorite and I'll miss you next year. Mom and Mike thanks for putting up with all my crap over the years. To all my friends, the real ones that stuck around, our times were fun and we will see each other again. Alyssa, Amanda D, Dylon, Dee, Rob, Courtney, Erica, Liz, McDougal, Queeno and Colty. Love u, no one could ever replace you guys. Shawn thank you for making my senior year memorable wherever our relationship goes you will always be close to me. Kev only one more year hang in there kid. FFP I'll never forget our Rockville stage of life. To the cheerleaders- I wish I could have been out there with you guys this year. Good luck in the years to come. I'll never forget "laugh without smiling," and all the years at camp. Alyssa there is way too much to say about you DZUEH, you'll be my best friend forever. DUECES SW!

Allison Zinn

"We didn't start the fire; it was always burning since the world's been turning." -Billy Joel

Throughout my four years I have learned to be patient, studious, and a better friend. I have also met many funny and interesting people in that time. Dorothy, you are my best friend, I have had the best four years because of you. I will never forget all of the fun/crazy times we've had, whether it was with the "big butts", trying on old ladies clothes, dancing to 80's music or our crazy sleepovers. We've had our ups and downs, but I know that when we both go to college and I can't fall asleep you'll be my girl to call. Thanks Dorothy. Thanks to my other friends, Meghann, wah wah wee wah! Bonnie, we rock our street! Andrea, I'm so happy I got to know you this year. Amanda, its been fun. Tessa and Sarah, I will miss the Mustang and Hummer rides. Thanks Kurt, Mazur, Stacy, Ethan, Stephanie B, Rachel, Spike and Adam. I love my Bonnie Hayes dancers! And thanks for all of the support and appreciation of my family. Congrats class of 2009!

Sara,

Ever since birth, you have demonstrated a love for life, family and the company of friends. By nature, you are a quiet person who has a wonderful sense of humor, hidden to most. However, for those of us who have experienced it, your humor produces fun and laughter. Your favorite interests are movies, texting, anything having to do with a cell phone and a love for animals, especially pigs. As you look forward to the next phase of your life, we encourage you to use your special talent in working with the elderly. You have a special gift for encouraging, sharing love and hope with Senior Citizens. Congratulations on your graduation and all the success and hard work.
